Replies to the Interpellations. for Budget session of the Representive Assembly of June 1924.

(a) Accurate information on the point is not available. Many of these ~~feeding houses~~ rest houses were establisned during the reign of His ------ Highness the Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodeyar Bahadur, III.

(b) Including three miscellaneous Dharmadaya grants there were 69 Chattrams in the State.

(c) From State Funds.

The chattrams are ordinarily intended for Brahmin travellers and Bhairagis but relief shall also be given to travellers of ---- other castes who are labouring under grievous bodily infirmity.

(d) The tasdik grant (Rs.602-8-0) of the Benkipur (Bhadravati) ----- Chattram which was abolished in 1906 was distributed among the remaining chattrams in the Shimoga District. Since then 28 chattrams as per statement appended have been ordered to be -- closed.

(e) The chattrams were in the first instance ordered to be converted into Rest-houses, as they no longer served their original purpose owing to the advent of railways, the expansion of communication and the shifting of traffic and pilgrim routes. Subsequently as it was brought to notice that these Rest-houses served no -- useful purpose as there were private Hotels ~~now a days~~ in ----- almost all places of importance and the construction and ---- maintenance of suitable buildings was a legitimate duty devolving upon District Boards, they were ordered to be abolished and the buildings, were - ever available, ordered to be handed over to the District Boards.

Savings

Savings effected as above are proposed to be utilized for meeting some of the urgent requirements of the Department - such as ---- Tirupati Charities, Barahazar Santarpane, Tulamasa Santarpane, Dasara feeding at Mysore etc.

h) Vide answer (g)

i) Yes. (~~Copy of report is in the Secretariat file~~. The report will be made available for perusal.)

(J) The Institution is very old one and the temple at Tirupati is the most famous of the South Indian Shrines. The Charity is -- partaken of by Mysoreans and others alike. Even now chattrams -- situated near renowned shrines, Thirthas and at other important centres in the State in connection with which charities are established, have been retained and their standard of usefulness ---- improved.

(k) }
(l) } The answer is in negative.

(m) Yes.

(n) There is nothing to support the statement made.

(O) Changes are made according to circumstances.

(It is noted here for the information of Government that even in an orthodox country like Travancore which is held in trust for the Temple, feeding houses have been closed in recent years.)
